Basel, Switzerland

Founded in 2014

Founder and Curator: Jasmin Glaab

kunsthallekleinbasel is an independent artist-run initiative which runs self-supporting. Founded in 2014 the initiative was located in an inhabited apartment where over 40 one-day exhibitions took place focusing on the presence of the artists and collective experience. Since 2018 the initiative is based in a shared studio in the center of Basel and hosts around 10 exhibitions a year.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE INITIATIVE

From 2014 to 2017 kunsthallekleinbasel was located in an inhabited apartment at Sperrstrasse 7 in Basel. The founder of the project Jasmin Glaab (artist, curator and educator) curated more than 40 exhibitions with artists from Switzerland, Germany, Austria and Italy. In her concept of one-day shows, the focus lies on the presence of the artists and the collective experience. The exhibitions are designed as performative events and represent a broad insight into current artistic tendencies - from young autodidacts to experienced professors. Since the beginning, the non-commercial initiative has been supported by collaborations with various artists, art educators, curators and photographers and works self-sustainingly.

After the inhabited exhibition space at Sperrstrasse 7 was closed in April 2017 due to reconstruction, the initiative toured Italy, France, Sweden and the Netherlands before settling down at Steinenbachgässlein in autumn 2018. Since 2016 the initiative has regularly participated in independent art fairs such as Supermarket Art Fair Stockholm (2016/18/19), YIA Art Fair (2017), The Others Art Fair Turin (2017), Hybrid Art Fair Madrid (SP) or Platforms Project Athens (2019). The participation costs for the the Fairs are generally divided by the participating artists. The aim of the participation is not to sell works but rather to network with the international artist-run scene.

Since 2018 kunsthallekleinbasel is located in a shared studio at Steinenbachgässlein 13 in the center of Basel. The former bakery is inhabited and hosts around 5 artist studios, an exhibition space and a vitrine. The founder and curator of kunsthallekleinbasel Jasmin Glaab follows up her concept of performative exhibition events and hosts around 10 solo exhibition a year accompanied by performances, lectures, concerts, screenings, talks, dinners, open laboratories or other interactive social activities.
